

DOES THE INDEX CONTAIN YOUR IDEA TO-DAY?

EXTRA.
2 O'CLOCK.
DYNAMITE IN ANGERS.

Bomb Explodes in the Police Office, One Policeman Injured.

Absolutely No Clue to the Men Who Worked the Outrage.

Two More Anarchist Suspects May Be Discharged at Paris.

PARIS, April 6.—Notwithstanding the extra precautions to prevent any further repetitions of dynamite explosions, the anarchists do not seem to find much trouble in pursuing their nefarious work wherever they are so disposed.

The latest scene of their activity is Angers, capital of the Department of Maine-et-Loire. The city is the seat of numerous industries and the anarchists there find many supporters among the working classes. The police here, as elsewhere in France, have been instructed to search out and arrest everyone who is believed to be implicated in any attempt to use dynamite unlawfully, and they have carried out their orders to the letter. But in searching the city and watching suspicious characters they appear to have neglected proper precautions to guard against an explosion at their own headquarters.

Last night or at an early hour this morning a dynamite bomb was quietly placed upon a window sill of the police depot, for a time lighted, and the anarchists withdrew.

Everything was quiet in the police depot and the vicinity, when suddenly there was a loud and tremendous roar that caused momentary consternation in the neighborhood. Every pane of glass in the windows of the police depot and the adjacent houses was shattered, and the depot itself was quite badly damaged. One policeman in the building was injured.

There is absolutely no clue to the perpetrators of the outrage.

Some comment has been made in Paris upon the release yesterday of Mathieu, who was arrested on the charge of being an accomplice of Ravachol. The police sought in every way to secure evidence connecting him with one or all of the explosions to which Ravachol has confessed that he was the author, but failed.

The evidence thus far obtained by the authorities fails to connect Labaudart and Chaumartin, who are also in custody on suspicion of complicity in the outrages, and it is expected that they, too, will shortly be released.

ACCUSED HER SISTER.
A Pretty Italian Girl Charged with Assault and Robbery.

SEVENTEEN-year-old Veech, a beautiful young Italian girl, whose home is at 15 East First street, was today held by Recorder McDonough, of Hoboken, for examination on charges of assault and robbery and robbery preferred by her married sister, Marie DeLafour, of Hoboken.

Mrs. DeLafour's story is that after a shopping expedition the two sisters and a mutual friend, returned to the DeLafour home on West avenue, Hoboken, where a quarrel ensued, and as Mrs. DeLafour alleged, her sister beat her and took her purse containing $50.

SUFFOCATED BY GAS.
A Servant Left the Gas Turned on by Accident.

Another case of suffocation by gas occurred at 606 West One Hundred and Forty-seventh street today.

One of the servants, Mrs. Martin, was found suffocated by gas in her bed. It is believed the woman left the gas turned on by accident.

CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.
In the Town Court today John Smith, a foreman of the Knickerbocker Express Company, living at 102 Ninth avenue, was held on a charge of cruelty to animals. He was found driving two horses suffering from sore.

SHOT HIS FATHERLESS WIFE.
Mr. Louis M. April 6.—About 11 o'clock last night William F. Griffin, traveling salesman for the Campbell Manufacturing Company, having traced his wife to an appointment with an unknown lover, shot and fatally wounded her. He is now in jail.

COMING EVENTS.
Hall of the Ales and Porter Union, No. 1 next morning, April 9, at 24 West Fourth street.

Reception of Company D, Twenty-first Regiment, New York, Monday evening, April 13, at the Marlborough Hotel.

Executive Committee meeting of the City Improvement Society, Monday evening, April 13, at 31 West Third street.

POINTERS ON THE RACES.
An Attractive Card at Gutterburg To-Day.

Rambler, Lorenzo and Rinfax in a Handicap.

A very attractive programme will be run off at Gutterburg to-day. The card comprises the usual six events, with a handicap race for two-year-olds as its feature.

The handicap promises well, for Rambler is billed to meet Lorenzo, the Western crack who ran so fast yesterday, and Rinfax, who is very fast just now. Servus, Arzel, Miss Belle and Benedictine are also entered. The other events should furnish interesting racing. The track will be dry and fast. The entries and selections are as follows:

First Race.—Purse $400, for beaten horses; five furlongs.

Second Race.—Purse $400, selling; five furlongs.

Third Race.—Purse $400, for maiden two-year-olds; five furlongs.

Fourth Race.—Purse $400, for beaten horses; five furlongs.

Fifth Race.—Purse $400, selling; five furlongs.

Sixth Race.—Purse $400, selling; five furlongs.

Seventh Race.—Purse $400, selling; five furlongs.

Eighth Race.—Purse $400, selling; five furlongs.

Ninth Race.—Purse $400, selling; five furlongs.

Tenth Race.—Purse $400, selling; five furlongs.

Eleventh Race.—Purse $400, selling; five furlongs.

Twelfth Race.—Purse $400, selling; five furlongs.

Thirteenth Race.—Purse $400, selling; five furlongs.

Fourteenth Race.—Purse $400, selling; five furlongs.

Fifteenth Race.—Purse $400, selling; five furlongs.

Sixteenth Race.—Purse $400, selling; five furlongs.

Seventeenth Race.—Purse $400, selling; five furlongs.

Eighteenth Race.—Purse $400, selling; five furlongs.

Nineteenth Race.—Purse $400, selling; five furlongs.

Twentieth Race.—Purse $400, selling; five furlongs.

Twenty-first Race.—Purse $400, selling; five furlongs.

Twenty-second Race.—Purse $400, selling; five furlongs.

DE ATE AND BRODSKY'S SNUB.
Anger at His Rejection by the Republican Club.

Liquor Dealers Oppose Special Sessions Trials of Excise Cases.

There has not been so much excitement in the city since the day John E. Brodsky was taken back into the Republican fold and named as the candidate for the district, as there was this morning over the news that he had been rejected for membership in the gilded Fifth Avenue Republican Club.

There was joy on the former occasion. To-day the district is shrouded in gloom. No honor is too great for the man who was rejected for membership in the club.

Although Mr. Brodsky is no longer a resident of the Fifth District, having moved into an aristocratic part of the Nineteenth, the ties that bound him to the constituency of which he was so long the leader have not been severed, and De Ate still claims him as his own.

Barney Rourke when he heard the news was angry clear through. He stood on the steps of his house and cursed and registered a vow of terrible vengeance against the members of the club.

"They are a set of scoundrels," he was saying, "and I will see that they are punished."

"Tut, tut, tut, Barney," interrupted his friend, Charles Rourke, "you know that the club is a mere social organization, and that the members are all good fellows."

"You know that the club is a mere social organization, and that the members are all good fellows," said Charles Rourke.

"You know that the club is a mere social organization, and that the members are all good fellows," said Charles Rourke.

"You know that the club is a mere social organization, and that the members are all good fellows," said Charles Rourke.

"You know that the club is a mere social organization, and that the members are all good fellows," said Charles Rourke.

"You know that the club is a mere social organization, and that the members are all good fellows," said Charles Rourke.

"You know that the club is a mere social organization, and that the members are all good fellows," said Charles Rourke.

"You know that the club is a mere social organization, and that the members are all good fellows," said Charles Rourke.

"You know that the club is a mere social organization, and that the members are all good fellows," said Charles Rourke.

"You know that the club is a mere social organization, and that the members are all good fellows," said Charles Rourke.

"You know that the club is a mere social organization, and that the members are all good fellows," said Charles Rourke.

"You know that the club is a mere social organization, and that the members are all good fellows," said Charles Rourke.

"You know that the club is a mere social organization, and that the members are all good fellows," said Charles Rourke.

"You know that the club is a mere social organization, and that the members are all good fellows," said Charles Rourke.

"You know that the club is a mere social organization, and that the members are all good fellows," said Charles Rourke.

"You know that the club is a mere social organization, and that the members are all good fellows," said Charles Rourke.

"You know that the club is a mere social organization, and that the members are all good fellows," said Charles Rourke.

"You know that the club is a mere social organization, and that the members are all good fellows," said Charles Rourke.

"You know that the club is a mere social organization, and that the members are all good fellows," said Charles Rourke.

GEN. WISE MAY BE CALLED OUT.
Old Col. Skinner Demands an Apology for His Granddaughter.

The General's Wife Alleged to Have Defamed Miss Bella Greene.

Members of the fashionable set of Southern New York city are agitated over a feud which has arisen between two of its most prominent and representative families in connection with the series of dances given by this circle during the past season at the Mendham Assembly Rooms.

Mrs. John S. Wise, wife of the prominent Virginia lawyer now living in this city, was the organizer of these dances, and associated with her were Mrs. Hugh Garden, Mrs. Roger A. Pryor, Mrs. Chisholm and others.

The story is that Miss Isabella Greene, well known in Richmond society, who has been visiting in New York this winter with some southern friends, was not invited to these dances on account of some objections made by certain subscribers to the entertainment, despite the fact that several of her friends made personal requests in her behalf to the committee in charge of these social affairs.

This caused great offense to the young lady's family and friends, and her grandfather, Col. W. S. Skinner, once an attaché of the American Legation in Paris in the time of Louis Philippe, came on to New York to look after his granddaughter's interests and endeavor to straighten out matters.

Col. Skinner believed that he had good reason to hold Mrs. Wise responsible for the slight which had been offered to his granddaughter, and he proceeded to investigate certain remarks she was said to have made at one of the committee meetings where the question of extending the dances to her was discussed.

He called upon Mr. Wise at his law office downtown New York, and after a long and heated discussion, he was told that Mrs. Wise had been invited to the dances by the committee.

Mr. Wise is an old friend of Col. Skinner, and he promised that a satisfactory letter should be written by Mrs. Wise at once. This letter was sent by Mrs. Wise on March 4, but it did not satisfy the old soldier.

Mr. Wise is an old friend of Col. Skinner, and he promised that a satisfactory letter should be written by Mrs. Wise at once. This letter was sent by Mrs. Wise on March 4, but it did not satisfy the old soldier.

Mr. Wise is an old friend of Col. Skinner, and he promised that a satisfactory letter should be written by Mrs. Wise at once. This letter was sent by Mrs. Wise on March 4, but it did not satisfy the old soldier.

Mr. Wise is an old friend of Col. Skinner, and he promised that a satisfactory letter should be written by Mrs. Wise at once. This letter was sent by Mrs. Wise on March 4, but it did not satisfy the old soldier.

Mr. Wise is an old friend of Col. Skinner, and he promised that a satisfactory letter should be written by Mrs. Wise at once. This letter was sent by Mrs. Wise on March 4, but it did not satisfy the old soldier.

Mr. Wise is an old friend of Col. Skinner, and he promised that a satisfactory letter should be written by Mrs. Wise at once. This letter was sent by Mrs. Wise on March 4, but it did not satisfy the old soldier.

Mr. Wise is an old friend of Col. Skinner, and he promised that a satisfactory letter should be written by Mrs. Wise at once. This letter was sent by Mrs. Wise on March 4, but it did not satisfy the old soldier.

Mr. Wise is an old friend of Col. Skinner, and he promised that a satisfactory letter should be written by Mrs. Wise at once. This letter was sent by Mrs. Wise on March 4, but it did not satisfy the old soldier.

Mr. Wise is an old friend of Col. Skinner, and he promised that a satisfactory letter should be written by Mrs. Wise at once. This letter was sent by Mrs. Wise on March 4, but it did not satisfy the old soldier.

Mr. Wise is an old friend of Col. Skinner, and he promised that a satisfactory letter should be written by Mrs. Wise at once. This letter was sent by Mrs. Wise on March 4, but it did not satisfy the old soldier.

Mr. Wise is an old friend of Col. Skinner, and he promised that a satisfactory letter should be written by Mrs. Wise at once. This letter was sent by Mrs. Wise on March 4, but it did not satisfy the old soldier.

Mr. Wise is an old friend of Col. Skinner, and he promised that a satisfactory letter should be written by Mrs. Wise at once. This letter was sent by Mrs. Wise on March 4, but it did not satisfy the old soldier.

Mr. Wise is an old friend of Col. Skinner, and he promised that a satisfactory letter should be written by Mrs. Wise at once. This letter was sent by Mrs. Wise on March 4, but it did not satisfy the old soldier.

Mr. Wise is an old friend of Col. Skinner, and he promised that a satisfactory letter should be written by Mrs. Wise at once. This letter was sent by Mrs. Wise on March 4, but it did not satisfy the old soldier.

Mr. Wise is an old friend of Col. Skinner, and he promised that a satisfactory letter should be written by Mrs. Wise at once. This letter was sent by Mrs. Wise on March 4, but it did not satisfy the old soldier.

Mr. Wise is an old friend of Col. Skinner, and he promised that a satisfactory letter should be written by Mrs. Wise at once. This letter was sent by Mrs. Wise on March 4, but it did not satisfy the old soldier.

Mr. Wise is an old friend of Col. Skinner, and he promised that a satisfactory letter should be written by Mrs. Wise at once. This letter was sent by Mrs. Wise on March 4, but it did not satisfy the old soldier.

Mr. Wise is an old friend of Col. Skinner, and he promised that a satisfactory letter should be written by Mrs. Wise at once. This letter was sent by Mrs. Wise on March 4, but it did not satisfy the old soldier.

MRS. APPEL ACCUSED HER HUSBAND AND MISS GOLDSTEIN.
Said They Made Her Drink Paris Green in Water in a Dark Room.

Young Mrs. Annie Appel was taken to the governor's hospital this morning suffering from Paris green poisoning, while Morris Appel, her husband, and Sarah Goldstein were arrested, charged with having administered the poison.

Nathan Frank, a peddler, of 10 Chrystie street, and Jacob Rosenberg, a baker, whose place is at 171 Huntington street, were also arrested, charged with having administered the poison.

The druggist said the man had made some inquiries as to who had sold a box of Paris green to his wife. He stated that his wife had taken the poison.

Officer Cahill went after the man, who said he was Morris Appel and that he lived in the tenement at 24 East Broadway.

While waiting for an ambulance, the husband and Nathan Frank were in the room. Cahill gave them a good talking, and told them to get out of the room.

When Cahill asked her why she wanted to take the poison, she said she did not know what she was doing.

Mrs. Appel stated positively that she did not take the Paris green of her own accord. On the contrary, she was forced to take it.

The surgeon who came with the ambulance applied the stomach pump with good effect. He said Mrs. Appel had nearly an ounce of Paris green in her stomach.

Officer Cahill locked Appel and Frank up at the Madison street station. A hideout for arrested Sarah Goldstein in the back shop at 80 East Broadway. Rosenberg was with her.

Officer Cahill locked Appel and Frank up at the Madison street station. A hideout for arrested Sarah Goldstein in the back shop at 80 East Broadway. Rosenberg was with her.

Officer Cahill locked Appel and Frank up at the Madison street station. A hideout for arrested Sarah Goldstein in the back shop at 80 East Broadway. Rosenberg was with her.

Officer Cahill locked Appel and Frank up at the Madison street station. A hideout for arrested Sarah Goldstein in the back shop at 80 East Broadway. Rosenberg was with her.

Officer Cahill locked Appel and Frank up at the Madison street station. A hideout for arrested Sarah Goldstein in the back shop at 80 East Broadway. Rosenberg was with her.

Officer Cahill locked Appel and Frank up at the Madison street station. A hideout for arrested Sarah Goldstein in the back shop at 80 East Broadway. Rosenberg was with her.

Officer Cahill locked Appel and Frank up at the Madison street station. A hideout for arrested Sarah Goldstein in the back shop at 80 East Broadway. Rosenberg was with her.

Officer Cahill locked Appel and Frank up at the Madison street station. A hideout for arrested Sarah Goldstein in the back shop at 80 East Broadway. Rosenberg was with her.

Officer Cahill locked Appel and Frank up at the Madison street station. A hideout for arrested Sarah Goldstein in the back shop at 80 East Broadway. Rosenberg was with her.

Officer Cahill locked Appel and Frank up at the Madison street station. A hideout for arrested Sarah Goldstein in the back shop at 80 East Broadway. Rosenberg was with her.

Officer Cahill locked Appel and Frank up at the Madison street station. A hideout for arrested Sarah Goldstein in the back shop at 80 East Broadway. Rosenberg was with her.

Officer Cahill locked Appel and Frank up at the Madison street station. A hideout for arrested Sarah Goldstein in the back shop at 80 East Broadway. Rosenberg was with her.

Officer Cahill locked Appel and Frank up at the Madison street station. A hideout for arrested Sarah Goldstein in the back shop at 80 East Broadway. Rosenberg was with her.

Officer Cahill locked Appel and Frank up at the Madison street station. A hideout for arrested Sarah Goldstein in the back shop at 80 East Broadway. Rosenberg was with her.

Officer Cahill locked Appel and Frank up at the Madison street station. A hideout for arrested Sarah Goldstein in the back shop at 80 East Broadway. Rosenberg was with her.

Officer Cahill locked Appel and Frank up at the Madison street station. A hideout for arrested Sarah Goldstein in the back shop at 80 East Broadway. Rosenberg was with her.

Officer Cahill locked Appel and Frank up at the Madison street station. A hideout for arrested Sarah Goldstein in the back shop at 80 East Broadway. Rosenberg was with her.

It is a long road that has no turning.

COL. JAMES CROSS-EXAMINED.
Efforts to Show that He Has No Claim Against J. H. Work.

Col. E. C. James, who is suing Lawyer J. Henry Work in Part IV. of the Supreme Court for $200,000, the balance he claims as due him on cash instalments in certain contracts negotiated by Grant & Ward for Work, W. S. Warner and himself, resumed his seat on the witness stand this morning.

The cross-examination of the plaintiff was conducted by Adolph Pinkoff, as ex-judge Noah Davis, one of Mr. Work's attorneys, was too ill to direct the interrogatories. The defense endeavored to prove that Col. James was cognizant of all withdrawals of money by Work and Warner from the firm of Grant & Ward.

Witnesses were asked if he had not seen a published statement, after the failure of the Marine Bank, showing that Work and Warner had drawn 30 per cent. of their investment. Col. James said he had seen a schedule published, which had been given to him by Ferdinand Ward.

Lawyer Chase, for the plaintiff, objected to the introduction of any statement from Ferdinand Ward, and Justice Patterson sustained the objection.

It is said that Appel thought more of Miss Goldstein, and his wife told the police that he was in the habit of beating her. The black and blue spots on Mrs. Appel's body bear out the wife's story.

When the four persons were arraigned in the hospital, Appel told the police that he and his wife were in the habit of beating her. The black and blue spots on Mrs. Appel's body bear out the wife's story.

When the four persons were arraigned in the hospital, Appel told the police that he and his wife were in the habit of beating her. The black and blue spots on Mrs. Appel's body bear out the wife's story.

When the four persons were arraigned in the hospital, Appel told the police that he and his wife were in the habit of beating her. The black and blue spots on Mrs. Appel's body bear out the wife's story.

When the four persons were arraigned in the hospital, Appel told the police that he and his wife were in the habit of beating her. The black and blue spots on Mrs. Appel's body bear out the wife's story.

When the four persons were arraigned in the hospital, Appel told the police that he and his wife were in the habit of beating her. The black and blue spots on Mrs. Appel's body bear out the wife's story.

When the four persons were arraigned in the hospital, Appel told the police that he and his wife were in the habit of beating her. The black and blue spots on Mrs. Appel's body bear out the wife's story.

When the four persons were arraigned in the hospital, Appel told the police that he and his wife were in the habit of beating her. The black and blue spots on Mrs. Appel's body bear out the wife's story.

When the four persons were arraigned in the hospital, Appel told the police that he and his wife were in the habit of beating her. The black and blue spots on Mrs. Appel's body bear out the wife's story.

When the four persons were arraigned in the hospital, Appel told the police that he and his wife were in the habit of beating her. The black and blue spots on Mrs. Appel's body bear out the wife's story.

When the four persons were arraigned in the hospital, Appel told the police that he and his wife were in the habit of beating her. The black and blue spots on Mrs. Appel's body bear out the wife's story.

When the four persons were arraigned in the hospital, Appel told the police that he and his wife were in the habit of beating her. The black and blue spots on Mrs. Appel's body bear out the wife's story.

When the four persons were arraigned in the hospital, Appel told the police that he and his wife were in the habit of beating her. The black and blue spots on Mrs. Appel's body bear out the wife's story.

When the four persons were arraigned in the hospital, Appel told the police that he and his wife were in the habit of beating her. The black and blue spots on Mrs. Appel's body bear out the wife's story.

When the four persons were arraigned in the hospital, Appel told the police that he and his wife were in the habit of beating her. The black and blue spots on Mrs. Appel's body bear out the wife's story.

When the four persons were arraigned in the hospital, Appel told the police that he and his wife were in the habit of beating her. The black and blue spots on Mrs. Appel's body bear out the wife's story.

EXTRA.
2 O'CLOCK.
AN ENGINE BLOWN UP.

Five Men Injured by a Locomotive Boiler Explosion.

Two Will Die, the Others Have Slender Chances of Life.

The Accident Occurred in a Railroad Yard at Long Island City.

LONG ISLAND CITY, April 6.—The boiler of locomotive No. 2 of the Long Island Railroad, exploded in the railroad yard in this city, near the company's shop, at 9.30 o'clock this forenoon, totally wrecking the engine and terribly injuring five men, none of whom will die.

The engineer and fireman of the locomotive, who were in the cab at the moment the explosion took place, were blown to a considerable distance, and are among those supposed to be fatally hurt.